Circles of Care values input from clients, personnel, and other stakeholders. Circles of Care has an internal advisory committee to review programs, processes, and protocols and make recommendations for change to ensure efficiency, best practice, and innovation in all aspects of service delivery. Circles of Care utilizes electronic surveys as a vehicle to gather input from foster parents, managing conservators, and Court Appointed Special Advocates. Management staff reviews all feedback and uses it to identify strengths within the agency and which areas need improvement. This type of input is beneficial to agency planning and quality assurance. Additional surveys may be created and sent to other entities when appropriate.

Licensing of foster parents is based on meeting minimum qualifications, home screenings, background checks, and other screening processes. Placement of children in the program depends on the agency’s ability to meet the children’s needs and appropriateness of the placement to meet the child’s needs.

Setting

Children placed with Circles of Care are serviced in foster homes that are licensed and managed for compliance. Each foster home is assigned to a Circles of Care Case Manager who monitors the services provided to each child in the home.

Circles of Care currently services TDFPS regions 3, 6, 7, 8 and 11 and has program offices in Corpus Christi (Corporate Office), Houston, Salado (Central Texas), Dallas, and the Rio Grande Valley (McAllen). Circles of Care also services the San Antonio and the Laredo areas. Each foster home must be within 150 miles of the main or a branch office to comply with state standards.

The organization provides the resources needed to support the overall scope of each program/service. Each Circles of Care office site has rooms that are available for confidential interviews, face to face counseling, group activities, training, and staff to work, computers, office equipment, and office supplies. Areas in which Circles of Care provides services but does not have an office have a
Case Manager who resides in the area to service youth and families. Each Case Manager is provided with the necessary equipment to conduct their job such as all-in-one printer, copier and fax machines, computer, and office supplies. These programs are also able to use community libraries, churches, hotel conference rooms, and offices with TDFPS to conduct trainings, meetings, and conferences.
